When you want to travel to China, but you don't know about transportation, checking in or asking the way, what should you do? By learning to travel Chinese, we can help you solve these problems. The travel Chinese course contains many aspects of travel and life, such as booking tickets, shopping, money change, asking for help and so on. We have a dedicated teacher to conduct this course for you. You can choose the best class type: One-to-One so that the teacher can customize the teaching content for you. Of course, you can also choose a small class. Either way, we hope you can have a great time in Yunnan, a province with a wealth of tourism resources.

First of all, we will test your Chinese proficiency. Second, we will determine the level of your Chinese language according to the test. This determines what kind of teacher you will be assigned to in your class.

Third, if you choose a one-on-one class, we will ask the teacher to customize the learning content and learning plan for travel Chinese based on your personal circumstances and learning needs.
